NICK'S PERSONAL AFFAIRS

* (60)

p. 55 - After Gatsby's big party is over, there is a section break (a skipped line on the page), and then Nick continues the narrative, saying:

Reading over what I have written so far, I see I have given the impression that the events of three nights several weeks apart were all that absorbed me. On the contrary, they were merely casual events in a crowded summer, and, until much later, they absorbed me infinitely less than my personal affairs. (Fitzgerald 55-56, emphasis added).

*• What are the "the events of three nights" that Nick is referring to? (Hint: What were the big events that Nick went to in chapters 1, 2 and 3?)

(61-64)

p. 56-59 - What else did Nick do that summer? Take notes below about Nick's job in the city, about his thoughts, about Jordan Baker, and about driving [symbol alert!]. You will need to make some inferences.
