

Tea at Nick's, Chapter 5

Directions: In between all the symbols and foreshadowing and descriptive language, you don't want to lose the plot! Read to enjoy, and check your understanding by answering these plot point questions.

Chapter 5

83-85

Nick gets home from where at 2 AM? And, who was he with? (hint: See end of previous chapter, 79-80)

What does Gatsby offer Nick, to help him make more money?

Why was this almost a "crisis" for Nick? (82-83 - infer) <sup>88</sup>

What's the weather like on the day of the tea? (83-84) <sup>88</sup>

Whose house has been prepared for this tea party?

How do Daisy and Gatsby act at first? (86-87) <sup>91</sup>

The movies skipped this, but find out: what topic makes Gatsby lose his smooth manners for a sec (90)? <sup>95</sup>

During the tour of Gatsby's mansion home, what makes Daisy cry (92)? What kind of life could the colorful shirts symbolize? <sup>98</sup>

What part of Daisy's house does Gatsby tell her he would always see? (92) <sup>98</sup>

What is Nick wondering about, now that Gatsby's long-held dream has started to come true (95-96)? <sup>101</sup>

Is this reunion scene between Daisy and Jay how you would have imagined it? Explain.
