

FITZGERALD AND THE GREAT GATSBY

THE GREAT GATSBY

5 reasons why this novel is great:

“The illumination from a great novel never fades. It sends the reader to another look in the mirror” (Dillon vii).

- #5. It's a rant against society, and 1920s society has many things in common with our day and age.
- #4. Fitzgerald wanted to write the 'great American novel,' and it has stood the test of time.
- #3. It's an art masterpiece.
- #2. It's about "the American Dream."
- #1. It might be about true and enduring love.
